THE SWORD INTERVAL

BEN FLEUTER NATASHA PETROVIC

Oh no, Paris!
He's fine.

I'm fine!

Oh, cool!
Yeah, see, he's always lucky.
Suspiciously lucky.

Ahem... More importantly...

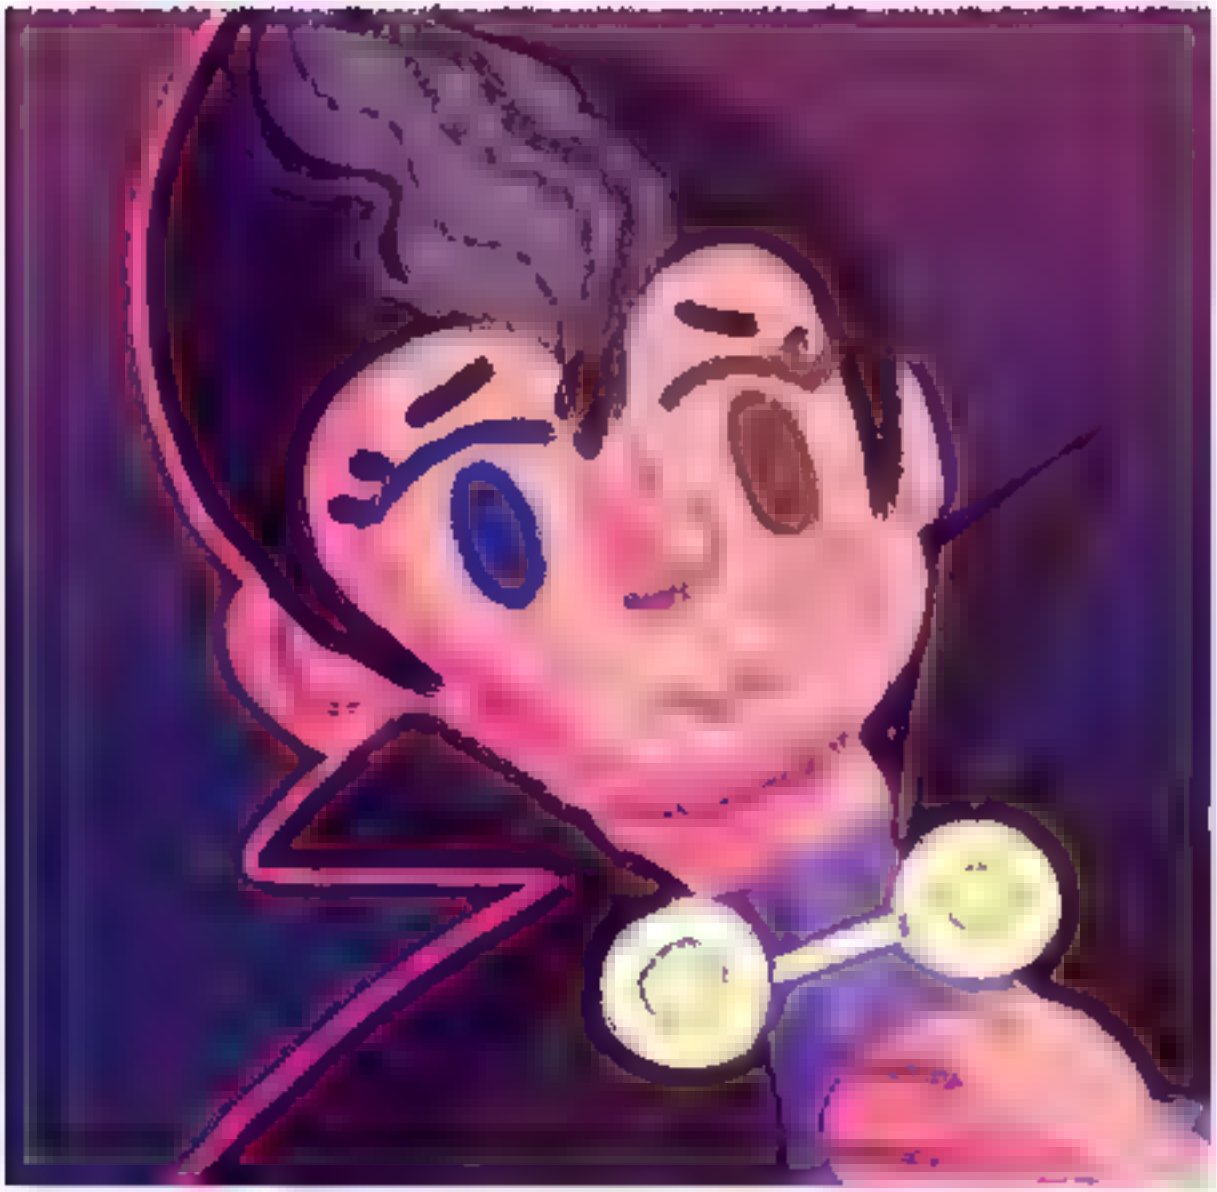
SHHH...

It looks like we solved the puzzle.

Hostiles are clear.
Thanks, Anne.
So the plan is to still bring this thing back to Atlas?
Better off there than in the Hierophant's possession. At least we can watch it.

You know, if this place really is clear of traps, it could be alright to send some refugees here.
Seems like the salt outside is keeping other monsters away.

Paris?



...Paris?

Hm?
Yeah, that sounds fine, Hult. I was just thinking about the more immediate issue...

How are we gonna load this thing onto the van?

That's it for the collaborative arc with Natasha Petrovic. I hope people enjoyed it.

Thanks to Natasha's help I was able to relax a little bit, and to get further ahead on writing than I normally am. We'll be returning to the main storyline next week.

Speaking of next week, I'm going to be at Emerald City Comic Con in Seattle Washington! If you're going to be there, head on over to the Artist Alley and stop by table KK-7 to say hi!
